

President's Report
ICOC Meeting
February 10, 2006

Zach W. Hall, Ph.D.
President

---

February 10, 2006

California Institute For Regenerative Medicine

Appointments and Introductions

- Introductions: Alex Campe, Tricia Chavira, Dan Bedford
- Appointment: Dale Carlson, Interim Senior Communications Officer
  - Pro bono, previously 14 years at Pacific Stock Exchange; active in public service

International Recognition

- CIRM invited to join International Stem Cell Forum
- Invitation from the MRC to co-host a joint scientific meeting between UK and California scientists.

Major Goals for 2006

- Maintain and extend scientific presence
- Build infrastructure for major grant-making in 2007

Scientific Activities

- Begin Training Grant Program
- Begin Innovations Grant Program
- Scientific Strategic Plan
- Assessment of Medical Risk for Egg Donors
- UK/California meeting on Stem Cell Self-Renewal and Differentiation
- On-line journal for stem cell research
- Meeting in fall 2006 for California stem cell researchers

Infrastructure

- Scientific and administrative personnel
- Information systems for integrated on-line grant applications, review, award and management
- Complete policies for IP, Medical and Ethical Standards, Grants Administration; convert to state regulations

Funding

Two major fund-raising efforts

- BANs: immediate goal, $50 M (Klein)
  - Support for Grants Program
- Gifts to support scientific activities: $2-2.5 M (Penhoet and Hall)
  - Support for CIRM Scientific Activities
  - Addition Scientific Personnel
-

---

February 10, 2006

California Institute For Regenerative Medicine

Assessment of Medical Risk to Egg Donors

- Focus on scientific issues
  - What do we know?
  - Identify gaps in knowledge
  - Identify best practices
- Co-sponsor: Society for Gynecologic Investigation
  - The Institute of Medicine and the National Academies Life Sciences Board will organize and run the meeting
  - Meeting in California
  - Estimated cost: up to $200,000

---

February 10, 2006

California Institute For Regenerative Medicine