

Facebook Live: Stem Cells and ALS

This Facebook Live event, "Ask the Stem Cell Team about ALS", aired on July 31st, 2018 and featured a conversation between Drs. Clive Svendsen, Robert Baloh from Cedars-Sinai, Dr. Ralph Kern, the Chief Operating Officer and Chief Medical Officer of Brainstorm Therapeutics, and CIRM Senior Science Officer Dr. Lila Collins.

In addition to the two clinical trials that CIRM is currently funding – one with Dr. Svendsen's team and one with Brainstorm Therapeutics – they'll also explore some of the biggest problems facing the field and where the research is heading. Dr. Ralph Kern, who is currently running a Phase 3 clinical trial for ALS we are funding, will also discuss his perspective on some of these problems as well.
