

AMENDMENTS TO ASSEMBLY BILL NO. 2381
AS AMENDED IN SENATE JULY 2, 2008

Amendment 1

On page 2, strike out lines 14 to 27, inclusive, on page 3, strike out lines 1 to 11, inclusive, and insert:

(c) (1) "California supplier" means any of the following:

(A) A sole proprietorship, partnership, joint venture, corporation, or other business entity whose permanent, principal office or place of business from which the supplier's trade is directed or managed is located in California and which produces, builds, researches, develops, or manufactures a product or service in California that is used for life science research, training, or facilities.

(B) A sole proprietorship, partnership, joint venture, corporation, or other business entity that meets any of the following criteria:

(i) Employs at least one-third of its total employees in California.

(ii) Includes a business unit, division, or subsidiary whose permanent principal office or place of business from which the unit, division, or subsidiary's trade is directed or managed is located in California, for the specific product or products that are sold by the unit, division, or subsidiary to California Institute for Regenerative Medicine (CIRM) grantees.

(iii) Sells, produces, builds, or manufactures a product or products in California for the specific product or products that are sold to CIRM grantees, so long as the supplier certifies that at least 50 percent of the cost of the product is attributable to activity undertaken in California.

(C) A sole proprietorship, partnership, joint venture, corporation, affiliate, or other business entity, including those owned by, or under common control with, a corporation, that either individually, or as an aggregated group under common control, does either of the following:

(i) Employs at least 800 California residents engaged in functions relating to or supporting products or services used for life science research, training, or facilities regardless of where its principal office or place of business is located.

(ii) Employs 5,000 or more California residents.

(2) Any entity that qualifies as a California supplier under clause (ii) or (iii) of subparagraph (B) of paragraph (1), but no other provision, shall be qualified as a California supplier only for purposes of the supply of the products or services referred to in clauses (ii) and (iii) of subparagraph (B) of paragraph (1). An entity that qualifies as a California supplier under subparagraph (A) or (C) of, or clause (i) of subparagraph (B) of, paragraph (1), shall be considered a California supplier for all the products and services produced or supplied by that entity. A California supplier shall identify to CIRM those products or services that qualify under this section. The identification shall be certified by the supplier's Chief Executive Officer, General Counsel, Partner, or other officer.
